There were no comments at this time, but the hearing remained open for comments until closed later in the meeting.

Questions and Comments

President Ali opening the meeting to questions and comments of members of the Board, by members of the public.

Superintendent Webb Retirement

The Board recognized Superintendent Webb, who attended his final Board meeting before he retires June 30 and Member Arns presented him with his retirement plaque. Superintendent Webb served QSD 172 for seven years.

QPS Teacher Gabrielle Esselman shared the story of Mr. Webb being involved in a zoom presentation and a student was mispronouncing her name. Superintendent Webb corrected them and explained that a person's name is important. Ms. Esselman stated that made an impact on her and her students.

Dennis Williams from Teen Reach presented Mr. Webb with a Bella Ease hoody and reminded him to remember what he did for the kids that many do not care about.

State Representative Randy Frese bestowed a plaque from the 101st General Assembly recognizing Superintendent Webb for seven years of exemplary service.

Victor Jarvis, QPS student, expressed that Mr. Webb was the best superintendent I have ever had.

Hal Oakley compared Mr. Webb to John Wayne's Rooster Cogburn because of his true grit and stated, "Our community is a better place because of you."

Mark McDowell, QND principal, talked about the Mr. Webb's incredible leadership and the historical impact of the passing of $89 million bond for our community.

Tim Koontz--parent, building committee member, volunteer, and former chair of QPS Foundation, recognized Mr. Webb for "bleeding blue more than anyone we've ever known" and stated his legacy will be the example of what true leadership is.

Ashley Kim, a 2022 QHS graduate, expressed gratitude to Mr. Webb for making the tough calls about masking, curriculum, and policies; his dignity in sticking up for what was right, and his genuine care for all students and staff.

Senator Jill Tracy thanked Mr. Webb for his leadership and shared that she could always call him, and he was always available. She said the school system is better because of his service.

Board Member Richard McNay said Superintendent Webb is a great human being and he was honored to serve with him.

Board Member Carol Nichols presented Webb with a collage of dogwood flowers to represent Quincy along with photos of family, staff, and board members.

Board Member Shelley Arns shared that she was on the committee that vetted candidates for the superintendent and said it didn't take much to realize Mr. Webb stood out among the rest because of his heart and the positivity that he exudes.

Chief of Business Operations Ryan Whicker and Director of Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment Kim Dinkheller presented Webb the flag that flew over the building and expressed appreciation for his guidance and service.

Board President Sayeed Ali conveyed that Superintendent Webb is the undisputed greatest superintendent of all time and feels that he made him a better person and a better leader. Ali shared his story of losing the first Blue Devil coin presented by Mr. Webb and how he took a knife to his sofa to find it. The coin was returned to Mr. Webb in recognition and honor of his service to Quincy Public Schools.
