1st grade parents and families,

Our 1st grade musical is coming up! The program will be on Tuesday, March 26 at 6:30 pm in the Rooney Elementary Gym. Students are asked to arrive by 6:15 pm and all 1st graders are asked to attend. This time has been corrected from the previous note. We sincerely apologize for the error.

This will be a great way to share all the successes your students are having with singing, moving, playing instruments, and more!

Students have been getting ready for the show for several weeks - we have chosen class songs/activities and who will have a speaking role. The students are getting so excited to perform for you.

At this program, we will be showcasing many of the activities we do each week in music class. To connect it all together, we are using the book The Day the Crayons Quit by Drew Daywalt.

The “costume” will be bright, crayon-colored nicer clothes. If your child has a speaking role, they should try to wear a color that matches what they are reading.

Haschmeyer/Vandament: Red, Green, Blue, Pink, or Orange

Hall/Johannes: Red, Green, Blue, Gray, or Yellow

We all look forward to seeing you on March 26th at 6:30 pm!
