FROM SUPERINTENDENT WEBB—BOARD MEETING REVIEW

At last night's meeting, three key leaders were introduced—Marcey Wells as the director of The Academy, Debbie Johnson as K-12 music director, and Jason Fink as Rooney principal.

Superintendent Webb awarded Herald-Whig staff writer, Deborah (Deb) Husar, the Blue Devil coin. She was recognized for her excellence in journalism—accurate reporting, communication, and trust.

The Board approved the amended calendar with June 2 as the last day for students and June 3 for staff. The end of year celebration for retirees will be broadcast virtually on June 3. Graduation for the class of 2022 will be held on May 27.

A bond resolution with plans to refund, or refinance, the general obligation bonds issued in 2014 was adopted by the Board. This is a way to save taxpayers money on interest payments. Chief of Business Operations Ryan Whicker and the district's bond advisor will review the proposal and if the savings are worth capturing, they will lock in a rate for refunding. If proposals are not in our favor, there is no obligation to do anything.

The Board approved the new course proposal for QHS, Technical Theatre Elective, recommended by the District Improvement Committee. The course is an independent study elective course that will be offered in the 2022-2023 school year and will offer a classroom component and require students to participate in several productions each year. The course will provide a way for students who are not necessarily actors or musicians to be involved in theatre and music.

Roy Webb
Superintendent

In other action, the Board approved:

- Sale of Surplus Property—1999 Blue Bird 71 passenger bus, 2000 Blue Bird 71 passenger bus, and a 2000 Blue Bird 48 passenger bus.
