FROM SUPERINTENDENT WEBB—BOARD MEETING REVIEW

Board Member Mike Troup will be submitting his resignation on Friday, April 30. He was elected Mayor of Quincy in the Consolidated Election held April 6, 2021 and will be sworn in on May 3. Board members discussed the process to fill the Board vacancy created by the resignation. The vacancy will be listed in the Quincy Herald Whig classified ads indicating letters of interest will be accepted through May 12, 2021. The Board will take action to fill the vacancy at the May 19 meeting.

Outgoing Board members Sheldon Bailey and Mike Troup were recognized and thanked for their service and contributions to the school district and the community. Sheldon served for eight years and Mike for six.

Matt McClelland, science teacher at Quincy Junior High, was named Athletic Director for the district effective August 1, 2021. He replaces Scott Douglas who was recently appointed as the Assistant Director of Transportation.

The following new courses, recommended by the District Improvement Committee, were approved for QHS/QAVTC:

Social Media Marketing – 1st semester course – will help students understand the marketing rationale behind ads and decipher between legitimate ads and click bait.

Sports & Entertainment Marketing – 2nd semester course – teach students about sports and event marketing.

Basic Agriculture Science- Full year course – designed as an inclusion Ag Science Class, a blend of the Agriculture Department and the Cross-Cat Program. It counts as a Cross- Cat science Credit.

Additional Computer Application credit courses include:

Digital Graphics

Yearbook Journalism

Two new textbooks were recommended for QJHS Spanish and QHS German.

Spanish 1 & 2 – grades 7-8—35 Hardback, this includes 35 online licenses and 70 additional online licenses.

German – grades 9-12 – Hardback and Online

The texts will be available for review for 30 days at the Board Office before final approval.

Following the regular meeting on April 28, a special organizational meeting was held to seat two Board members who were re-elected at the April 6 election: Sayeed Ali and Richard McNay. Rachael Petty was also elected as a new Board member. Sayeed Ali will continue as Board President and Shelley Arns as Vice-President.
